3- Read the following, then answer the questions: (5M)

It's my first visit to Egypt. My friends advised me to go to Alexandria. It's summer. However, it is not very hot there, so many tourists go at this time. I'm staying in a hotel in Alexandria now. It is Friday, so there is little traffic in the streets. The hotel is near the sea and I can hear the boats. The hotel is also near the tourist information centre, but it is closed today.

Tomorrow I will ask about what I should see in the city. The guidebook says that I should visit Fort Qaitbey. The stones in the fort are from the famous lighthouse. They were used after the lighthouse collapsed in an earthquake in 1303.

Best wishes,
Andy

1- Why do many tourists go to Alexandria in the summer?

Because it's not very hot.

2- Who do you think Andy is writing this email to and why?

I think he is writing to his grandparents to tell them about his holiday.

3- Which place does the guidebook advise Andy to visit?

Fort Qaitbey.

4- The underlined word "collapsed" means

Many famous people were amazing when they were children. Mozart was able to play music when he was three and could write music when he was five. Judit Polgar is a great chess player. She was able to win chess games against some adults when she was twelve years old and she won chess competitions when she was fifteen.

Karl Benz went to university to study to be an engineer when he was fifteen and he later invented the car. And the great scientist Marie Curie taught herself to read Russian and French when she was four. She could also help her older brothers and sisters with their maths homework! However, some people who do amazing things when they are children become ordinary adults: not all of them are able to become famous.

1- Why did Karl Benz go to university?

He wanted to be an engineer.

2- Who taught Marie Curie to read Russian and French?

Nobody. She taught herself.

3- Why do you think that many amazing children are not able to become famous when they grow up?

Perhaps many amazing children do not have other useful skills when they are adults.

Why Egypt is a good place for tourists?

Egypt is a great country in the north of Africa. Tourists come from all over the world to visit Egypt. They like visiting Egypt for many reasons. It has many places of interest. It has a lot of monuments and historical buildings. In addition, it has beautiful beaches. There is a lot to do in Egypt.

A book review

One of my favourite novels is Robinson Crusoe by Daniel. It is about a boy who wants to become a sailor. When he grows up, he travels to many countries and has many adventures. His boat sinks and he lives for many years on an island. I liked the description of how he finds food and a place to live. Finally, Crusoe meets some other people and returns to England. Some of the story made me feel sad, but at the end I felt happy. It was a very enjoyable story and the characters are wonderful.
